

Transformation - Tex Style

Author and professor Tex Sample is coming to the PNNY with ideas to help us increase the vitality of our churches. He will be the featured speaker at the 2nd Annual Transformation Conference from 9AM to 4PM on Saturday Oct. 15th at the First PC of Potsdam. Refreshments and on site registration at 8:30 AM.

www.texsample.com

Tex is an expert on oral culture, literary culture, and electronic culture - their differences and the methods of communication we need to understand in order to reach out in our communities.

Before Oct. 7 the cost will be $32 and $40 after. Congregations sending four or more will pay a flat rate of $125.

Register on line www.presbyteryofnny.org or call 315-265-7640. 🌿

Workshop Leader
Rev. David Olsen, PhD
Executive Director Samaritan
Counseling Center of the Capital Region

Boundaries Awareness

Workshop

9AM-4PM
October 12, 2005
Stone PC Watertown

This workshop deals with sexual misconduct prevention.

Rev. Sarah Sanderson Doughty, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Lowville, NY, and a member of the Task Force on Peace Purity and Unity of the PC (USA) will be at the PNNY meeting September 30 – October 1 at Wadhams Hall in Ogdensburg.

The Theological Task, created by the 213th General Assembly (2001) “to lead the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) in spiritual discernment of our Christian identity in and for the 21st century, voted recently to approve their report for the 217th GA. Copies can be downloaded at www.presbyteryofnny.org

Task Force meeting at GA.

Peace, Prayers, Plans, and Provisions

Peace and Justice Working Group Retreat

Wadhams Hall, Ogdensburg

September 29 –30, 2005

For More Information and Registration, Contact Carol Drew
(315) 482-5460 -- cwd@imcnet.net